

SAVE THE DATE

5 October 2021 • 11:00 to 12:30

Come join us for discussions on South Africa's water situation, including thought-provoking topics such as water usage breakdown by sector, forecasted impacts of climate change, desalination, rainwater harvesting and many more pressing facts about South Africa's water sources, challenges and innovations.

Detailed information on how to register for this event will be published on our website at www.sagic.co.za. For more information please contact admin@sagic.co.za.

